Ladies get chatty about coffee, cuts and carats

The launch of the exclusive Cappuccino Collection store at Opera House a few days ago saw Manish and Jyoti Shah play hosts to an eclectic gathering. Spread over 1400 sq ft, the designer diamond jewellery store is dotted with one-of-a-kind artwork from across the globe.

At the event, guests were treated to a view of the sparkling Espresso, Latte and Irish collections, along with a brand new range of men's jewellery (including diamond studded belts, cuff links, buttons, watches, etc).

Pria Kataaria Puri, who was announced the Cappuccino Collection brand ambassador back in 2012, represents the multi-faceted women of today who live life to the fullest within the realms of family values, culture, and traditions. At the event too, the jet-setter was seen chatting with all and sundry.
